The final regulations – Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (Buckley Amendment) dated June 1976, no longer requires written parental consent to release student educational records between schools. These rules state that school officials in school systems in which the student may intend to enroll may release and receive a student's records without written consent of such release. (Florida, see also Florida State Statute 228.093 and State Board of Education Rule 6A-1.955). NONDISCRIMINATORY POLICY: WCS admits students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin in administration of its school-administered programs, inclusive of athletics and fine arts, nor any of its school-administered policies which include admissions, and other policies.
